WORK NOW ON AT CAMP FREAR

Over Hundred Guardsmen Are Under Canvas Today.

Thirty officers and 83 non-coms and enlisted men went out to Camp Frear at Fort Shafter yesterday afternoon and for the next seven days will be under the instruction of officers of the regular establishment in military science of different kinds, the whole work being in charge of Major W. P. Burnham, 20th Infantry.

Of the officers and men who are now at the camp, seven officers and 39 men come from other islands, the remainder of the contingent being Honoluluans.

From the other islands the men came in Saturday and all assembled at the armory yesterday afternoon preparatory to moving out to camp, which was done about 5 o'clock, street cars being the means of transportation.

Today the men begin their first real work and at 5:45 this morning the first call went out over the sleeping camp. From that hour until late tonight every hour has something for those at the camp and when it is all over officers and non-coms will have many new ideas of military life.

The program for today and tomorrow contains the following:

Today. Officers—8 a. m.: Talk on course of instruction, etc. 9 a. m.: Talk on police and sanitation. 10 a. m.: Care of rifle, estimating distances, etc. 2 p. m.: Tactical walk. 8 p. m.: Talk on orders.

Non-Coms—A. M.: Close-order drill (including fifteen minutes' bayonet exercise); extended-order drill and firings; position, aiming and sighting drills. P. M.: Talk on discipline, and instruction in saluting, reporting to and addressing an officer; practical instruction in care of rifle and equipments; talk on sanitation, etc.

Tomorrow. Officers—8 a. m.: making and reading maps. 10 a. m.: sanitation. 11 a. m.: administration. 12:00 m.: inspection of camp. 2 p. m.: tactical walk. 8 p. m.: talk on courts-martial, company punishment, etc.

Non-Coms—A. M.: Close order drill (including 15 minutes bayonet exercise); extended order drill; general attack formations, rushes, duties of supports, and withdrawal from action; tent pitching, shelter, wall and conical wall. P. M.: Talk on principals and formation of advance guards, rear guards, outposts and patrols; elementary map reading.
